INTRODUCTION

1. Standing Orders are the written rules of Earls Colne Parish Council (ECPC).
2. Standing Orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of an ECPC meeting.
3. ECPC also use Standing Orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements.
4. ECPC operate within a wide statutory framework. Standing Orders do not contain or reference all the statutory or legal requirements which apply to ECPC.
5. The statutory requirements to which a ECPC is subject apply whether or not they are incorporated in this ECPC Standing Orders Policy
6. Standing Orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements.
7. Standing Orders not in bold are designed to help ECPC operate effectively but they do not contain statutory requirements
8. ECPC does not have the following positions and all references have been removed
 - a. Vice Chairman
 - b. Non- Councillors with voting rights
 - c. Committees or Sub Committees

STANDING ORDER 1 – Rules of Debate at Meetings

- a Motions on the Agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the Chair of the ECPC meeting.
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the Agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the Chair of the ECPC meeting as withdrawn.
- d If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the ECPC meeting and, if requested by the Chair of ECPC, is expressed in writing to the Chair of ECPC.
- h A Councillor may move an amendment to their own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the Chair of the ECPC meeting.
- j Subject to Standing Order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the Chair of the ECPC meeting.
